EXPLORE NOW

Sightseeing attractions

Recognised by UNESCO as a World Heritage Site, Ha Long Bay captivates visitors with thousands of limestone islands rising from emerald waters.

A day cruise offers the chance to explore magnificent caves, kayak through tranquil lagoons, relax on Titop Island, and savor a fresh seafood lunch onboard. In the evening, guests can also indulge in a dinner cruise with live music, fine dining, and fireworks over the shimmering bay.

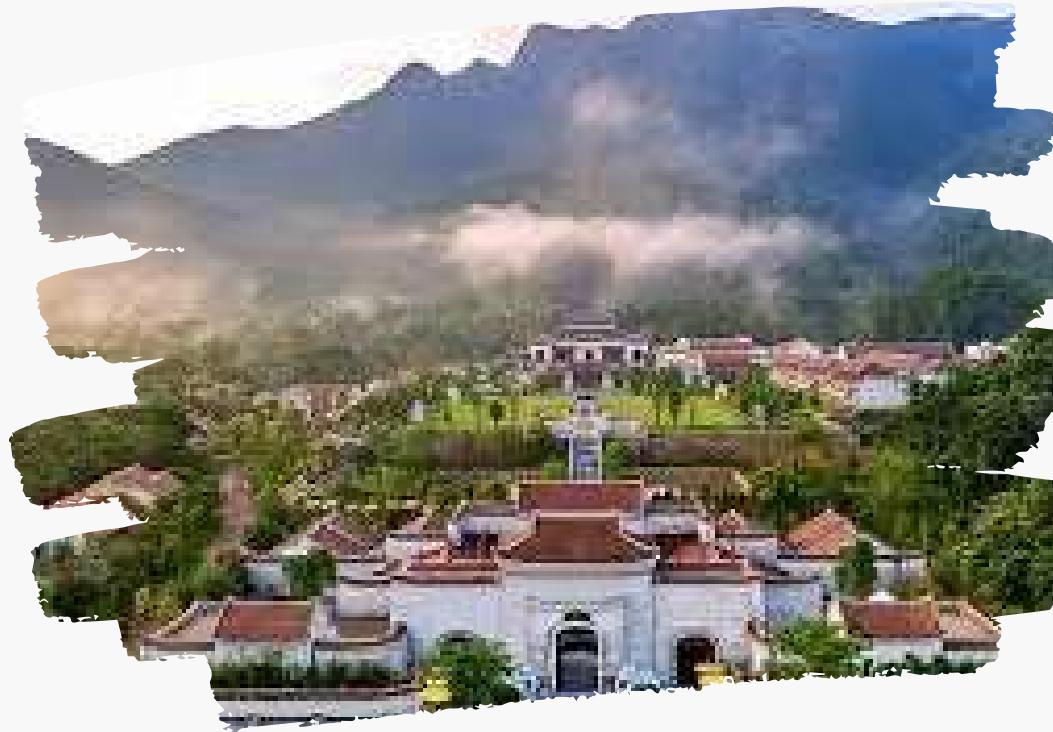

Beyond the Bay Discover More of Ha Long

While Ha Long Bay is renowned worldwide for its emerald waters and dramatic limestone islands, the city itself offers a wealth of experiences waiting to be explored. Beyond the cruises and scenic viewpoints lies a vibrant destination filled with culture, creativity, and charm.

Visitors can discover sacred pagodas nestled among green hills, unwind in natural hot springs, enjoy local coffee and cuisine, or shop for handcrafted souvenirs in lively markets. Ha Long also surprises with its modern entertainment, art spaces, and welcoming atmosphere. Together, these experiences reveal another side of Quang Ninh, a destination that is not only about the bay, but about the stories, people, and spirit that surround it.

Spiritual - Cultural attractions

Yen Tu Mountain & Pagoda Complex

Known as the cradle of Vietnamese Zen Buddhism, Yen Tu is a sacred mountain where ancient temples and pagodas blend harmoniously with misty forests. Visitors can take a cable car or hike to the summit, visit the Dong Pagoda, and immerse themselves in a peaceful spiritual atmosphere surrounded by nature.

Ba Vang Pagoda

Perched on the mountainside in Uong Bi City, Ba Vang Pagoda stands out with its grand architecture, tranquil courtyards, and panoramic views. As one of northern Vietnam's most famous spiritual sites, it offers visitors a serene space for prayer, reflection, and Buddhist learning amid beautiful scenery.

Bao Hai Linh Thong Pagoda

Majestic and serene, Bao Hai Linh Thong Pagoda sits atop Bai Tho Mountain, offering panoramic views of Ha Long Bay. The pagoda combines traditional Vietnamese architecture with spiritual tranquility, making it an inspiring destination for meditation and contemplation above the clouds.

Entertainment attractions

Yoko Onsen Quang Hanh

Nestled among lush mountains, Yoko Onsen Quang Hanh is Vietnam's first Japanese-style hot spring resort. Guests can relax in mineral-rich onsen baths, enjoy private spa treatments, and experience authentic Japanese hospitality – a perfect retreat for body and mind rejuvenation in Quảng Ninh.

Bai Chay & Hon Gai Beach

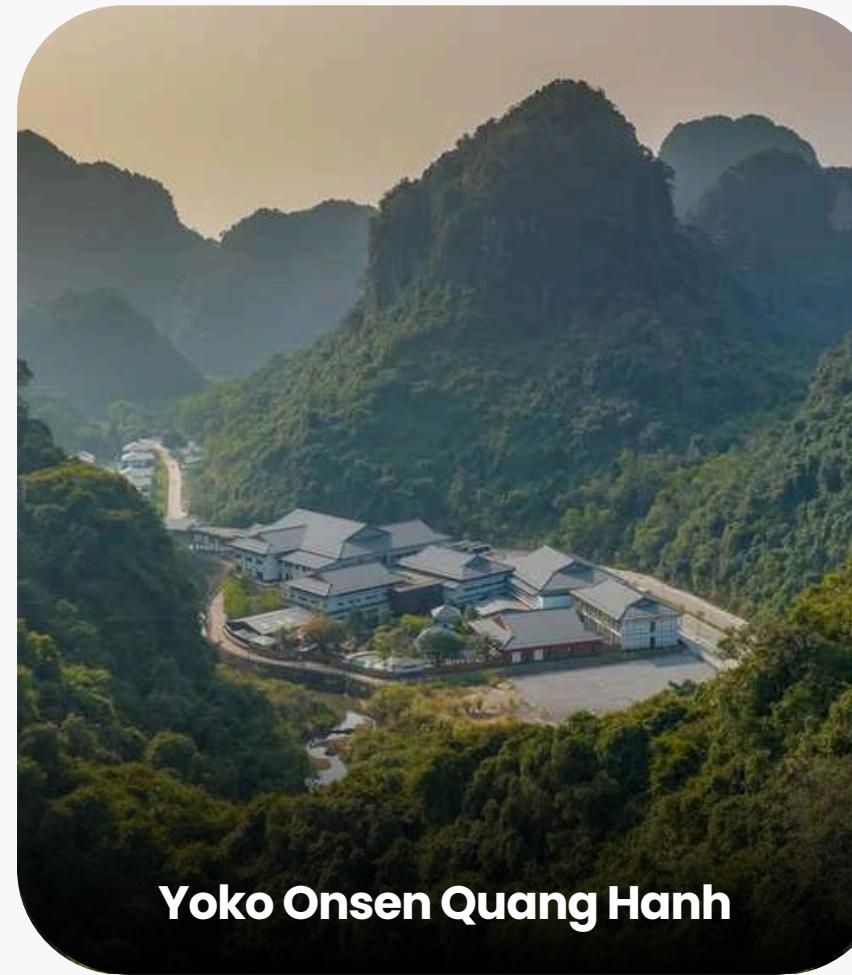

These twin coastal areas form the vibrant seaside heart of Ha Long City. Bai Chay Beach offers soft sands, swimming, and a lively promenade lined with cafes and seafood restaurants, while Hòn Gai Beach provides a quieter escape with scenic coastal views – ideal for sunset strolls and city relaxation.

Sun World Ha Long Complex

The ultimate entertainment hub of Ha Long, Sun World Complex features thrilling rides at Dragon Park, refreshing slides at Typhoon Water Park, and a spectacular cable car ride to the Sun Wheel overlooking the entire bay. Perfect for young families and adventure seekers looking for fun and excitement.

Quang Ninh Museum

Designed with striking black glass architecture overlooking the bay, the Quang Ninh Museum is both a cultural landmark and a modern art statement. Inside, visitors can explore exhibitions on local heritage, coal mining history, and the province's unique maritime culture, a must-see for history lovers.

Entertainment attractions

Water Puppet Show

The Water Puppet Show is one of the country's most treasured performing arts which dated back a thousand years ago. Skilled puppeteers stand waist-deep behind a curtain, using long bamboo rods to control colorful wooden puppets dancing on the water's surface. Accompanied by live folk music, the stories depict rural life, local legends, and national pride.

Dragon Pearl Cave Dinner & Cultural Show

A one-of-a-kind experience combining fine dining and culture inside a magnificent limestone cave. Guests enjoy a candlelit gourmet seafood dinner with live traditional performances, surrounded by natural stalactites — an unforgettable way to celebrate the magic of Ha Long Bay.

Seaplane Excursion

For those seeking an extraordinary perspective, taking off smoothly from the water, the aircraft climbs to a low cruising altitude that reveals a breathtaking panorama of limestone islands, emerald waters, and hidden lagoons. The scenic flight provides countless photo opportunities and a truly unique sense of awe.

Oyster Farm

The Oyster Farm Visit offers a fascinating insight into Ha Long's long-standing pearl culture. Guests travel by boat to a floating pearl farm, where local artisans explain each stage of cultivation, from raising oysters and implanting nuclei to harvesting and polishing natural pearls. The visit not only highlights local livelihoods but also showcases the sustainable harmony between people and the sea.
